VLADIMIROVITCH,	)
Petitioner,	)	ORDER ACCEPTING FINDINGS AND

Respondent.	)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636, the Court has reviewed the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (“Petition”), Respondent’s motion to dismiss the petition, the parties’ briefing on the motion, Petitioner’s “Statement of Facts [and] Motion to Release,” Petitioner’s “Request for Case Discovery,” Petitioner’s multiple other submissions/requests, and all of the records herein, including the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge. <sup>1</sup> The detention is lawful because it has not exceeded the presumptively reasonable six-month post-removal period. See Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678 (2001) (holding that six months is a presumptively reasonable period of detention to secure an alien’s removal after the 90-day removal period). The Court therefore does not reach the question whether Petitioner’s detention on criminal charges restarted the 90-day period under 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(B)(iii). See Diaz-Ortega v. Lund, No. 1:19-CV-670, 2019 WL 6003485, at *8 (W.D. La. Oct. 15, 2019) (discussing split in authority on this issue).

Petition and Petitioner's other requests (including the motion to release and motion for discovery) are denied; (3) the Petition and this action are dismissed without prejudice to Petitioner filing a petition if the circumstances of his detention become unlawful; and (4) judgment shall be entered dismissing this action without prejudice.

DATED: October 20, 2025
